

Because playing the quarterback position is so much more than being athletic and having the ability to throw, Coach Smith takes a comprehensive 360 - degree approach to create a 'complete quarterback' who can execute all facets of the game at maximum capacity... the physical, mental, emotional and spiritual components that transform both self and others.

Coach Smith believes that because playing the QB position is a leadership position whom an entire program depends on, you need to be either all in or all out! As a result, his comprehensive & systematic approach to training is designed to deliver proven results for those who are willing to commit!!

360-Degree Quarterback Training Includes

* App is included in all coaching packages

"Eric Smith clearly understands the fundamentals of leadership and the quarterback position. Both of my boys had a very positive experience with Coach Smith and his Winning Edge Camp."

Doug Musgrave, former Div-1 QB (Oregon Ducks)

"Corey Mote's transition from his junior year to his senior year after working with Coach Smith is one of the biggest success stories I've witnessed in my 18 years of coaching. "

- Chris Morris, Head Coach, Dixon HS

"The coaching that I received from Coach Smith at his Winning Edge Academy was extremely influential in my success as a quarterback and team leader"

- Corey Motes, Quarterback

"As a parent and football coach I've worked with my son, Ty, since he was little. Its been a fun successful ride but eventually we found he needed the insight and expertise of a position coach. A coach that could inspire and teach. Eric's QB knowledge, communication skills and passion for the game was a perfect fit. The mechanics and confidence learned gave Ty a competitive edge that directly translated to the field. Our football team went 13-0 this season, with Ty at QB and I feel our time spent with Eric made all the difference. Thanks coach Eric, look forward to working with you this spring."

- Bruce Farrell, Football Coach / Parent

Through my years of coaching, raising athletes and teaching, I've learned that kids typically don't take full control of their athletic journeys. They don't grow enough when they're alone, away from coaches.

It's important to understand that to become a leader, one must learn how to lead themselves first! This program is designed for the quarterback, through my weekly guidance, to work through the curriculum on their own. They will do this using my exclusive Phone App! It's like having me in their pocket, whenever and wherever they want to practice and learn!

During their time alone (between on-field sessions), they will be expected to work on the skills they're learning. They will use the phone app to work through the various assigned drills and lessons.

To hold the QB accountable, their activity will be monitored weekly in our virtual sessions via Zoom or Phone Call. Accountability – Accountability - Accountability!!! You have the reassurance of knowing that your money is NOT being wasted. An important feature of the training app's functionality is that I can monitor the quarterback's activity on my end. This way, we'll know how invested they are in their development.

At the end of the training program, the QB will be given an assessment. I will evaluate the results and consult the QB for proper understanding.

Simply put, I've learned that maximum growth comes from guided training and weekly accountability sessions. Normally, quarterback coaches and skill trainers teach skills then leave the athlete to their own devices, with no accountability. Those results are marginal at best. I'm all about RESULTS!! SUCCESS!! After all, that's what you're paying for right?

I'm looking forward to helping your son reach his quarterback goals!!

Coach Smith
